1. The OENO (Federation of Greek Maritime Unions) branch in Cardiff recently held a meeting at which it decided to send an announcement to OENO crew members asking them to prevent ships from going to Korea.
2. The OENO in Cardiff is trying to raise an income of $1,000 a month. Nicholas Kapitis, who allegedly had formerly been in prison in the United States, made a collection of $120 aboard the ship PANAGIA of the Hadjipateras Company and sent it to Cardiff for the OENO.
3. Theodore Simeonides is the OENO representative at Swansea, Wales.
4. The OENO has been making unsuccessful efforts to obtain the release of two of their representatives in Marseilles who were arrested by the French authorities*. It is believed by source that the arrested individuals will be deported from France but will not be sent to Greece; they will go to Poland.
